OUTSIDE

A long gravel driveway leads to the front of the property with a turning circle and additional gravel courtyard area for numerous vehicles with mature weeping willow and ash trees providing shade. Timber double garage and stable block built by family owned Scotts of Thrapston with its unparalleled level of craftsmanship and attention to detail. Offering four loose box stables, workshop, tack room and kitchen area with the fenced stable yard. This subject to planning and listed building consent offers potential for adapting to an annex or home office.

Exquisite grounds to the rear of the property totally compliment the house and need to be seen to be believed. Directly off the open plan kitchen/family room is an extensive York stone terrace with external lighting and flower/shrub borders, this leads to the rear lawn which offers peace and tranquility in every part. An established orchard provides further shade with the remains of a dry stone wall to its edge.

The gravel courtyard provides parking directly in front of the stables with gated access to the rear grounds and well stocked shrubbery.

Fenced Ménage - situated off the long gravel driveway to the front of the property in an area extending to approximately 0.3 acres with the ménage itself measuring 700 msq.
