Book a Viewing!

£200,000

A beautiful Grade II listed Stone Cottage, steeped in history and character, occupying a delightful position in the highly sought after Cliff Village of Welbourn. The property is the birthplace of the renowned Sir William Robertson and has been well maintained by the current owner, preserving its wealth of original features and period charm. The light filled accommodation comprises a welcoming lounge with two attractive bay windows, a fitted kitchen diner, and a first floor landing leading to two generous double bedrooms and a shower room. Outside, the property enjoys an attractive courtyard garden to the front, established cottage gardens to rear, and two useful brick-built outbuildings. A truly unique home combining historical significance with timeless character in one of Lincolnshire's most desirable cliff villages. Viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION

Welbourn is a picturesque and highly sought after Cliff Village, situated approximately 11 miles South of the Cathedral City of Lincoln and around 8 miles North West of Sleaford. The village is renowned for its attractive stone built properties, conservation area, and strong sense of community. Residents enjoy a range of local amenities including a village shop and Post Office, Pub, village hall, playing fields, and a well regarded primary school, while the nearby Sir William Robertson Academy provides secondary education. The village is also home to the historic St Chad's Church and the scheduled ancient monument of Castle Hill, with an abundance of countryside walks and access to the Viking Way nearby. Excellent road links via the A607 provide convenient access to Lincoln, Grantham and the A1, making Welbourn an ideal location for those seeking village living with excellent connectivity
