Offering a rare blend of space, sophistication, privacy and village living, this outstanding bungalow is a home that truly demands to be appreciated in person. An early viewing is highly recommended to fully experience the exceptional quality, proportions and extensive grounds this magnificent property has to offer.

LOCATION

Burton is a highly regarded and picturesque village approximately four miles north-west of Lincoln, offering an attractive blend of traditional village character, open countryside and convenient access to the city. The village has a strong community spirit, with the Burton Estate Club providing a popular social hub throughout the year, hosting a varied programme of events ranging from summer barbecues and hog roasts to quiz evenings, themed food nights and other community gatherings. The surrounding countryside offers plenty of opportunities for outdoor pursuits, with riding routes and bridleways extending towards North and South Carlton, alongside local equestrian facilities and a dog agility park. Burton Waters Marina is also close by, providing a further choice of restaurants and cafés, the David Lloyd Club and a variety of waterside leisure activities along the Foss Dyke. Despite its peaceful village setting, Burton is ideally positioned for access to Lincoln and the surrounding area, with convenient links to the A15 and A46. The combination of countryside, community, leisure facilities and proximity to the city makes Burton an appealing choice for families, commuters and those looking for a more relaxed village lifestyle.
